INSPIRING ACTIVE COMMUNITY CULTURE

CAN SA is the peak body for community arts in South Australia and is the principal source of community cultural development advice, information and support services in the State. CAN SA is a non-profit membership based organisation, incorporated in 1980, which also has a nationally recognised training arm CANtrain. CAN SA also influences community cultural development nationally through policy development and national projects such as Artwork Magazine and the National Community Cultural Development Website.

Editors - Dee Martin, Julia Tymukas and Scott O'Hara
